The Olympic Oath (8 points)

Here are the words of the oath:

In the name of all competitors, I promise that we shall take part in these Olympic Games, respecting and abiding by the rules which govern them, in the true spirit of sportsmanship, for the glory of sport and the honor of our teams.

1. Why is it important to follow the rules of a sport?

2. In your own words, what does "true spirit of sportsmanship" mean?

3. According to the Olympic Oath, what are the goals of Olympic Competition?

4. Make a P.E. Oath for our class. It must be between 25-50 words long.
